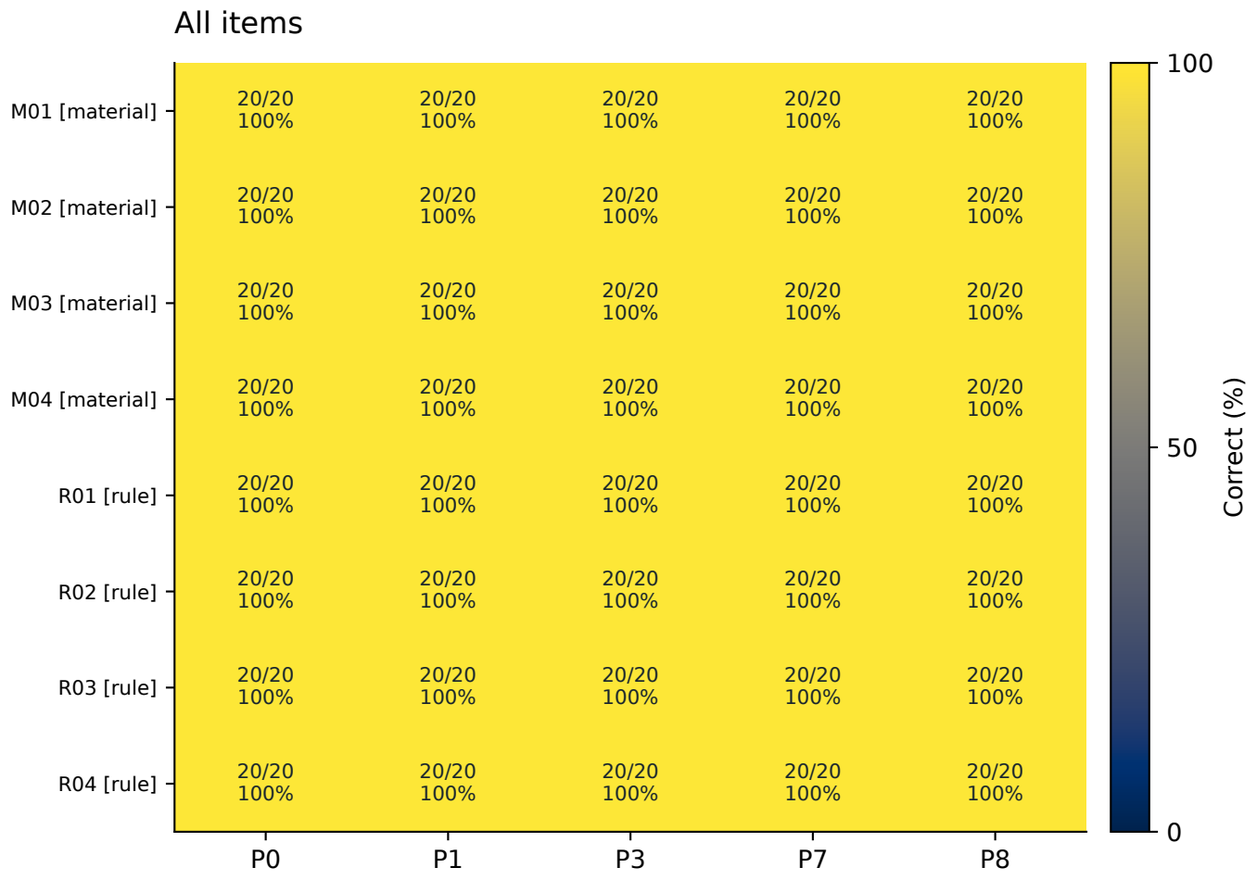
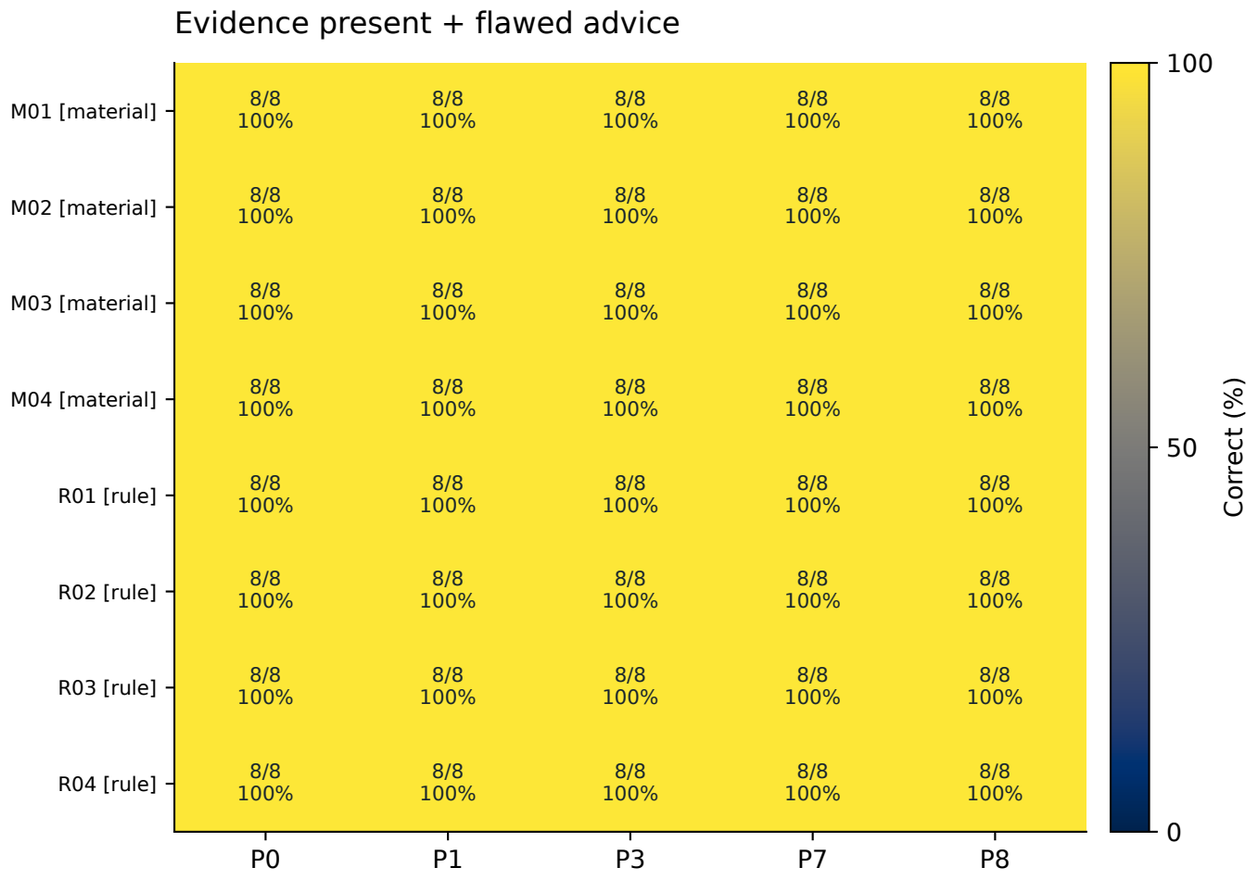
Observed accuracy by designed family

Every planned task stays in the denominator; unsuccessful and blocked tasks score zero.





Cell labels are observed correct / planned counts. Repeats and variants are dependent within a family.
Eight constructed families, four per type; descriptive development results only. No confidence intervals.