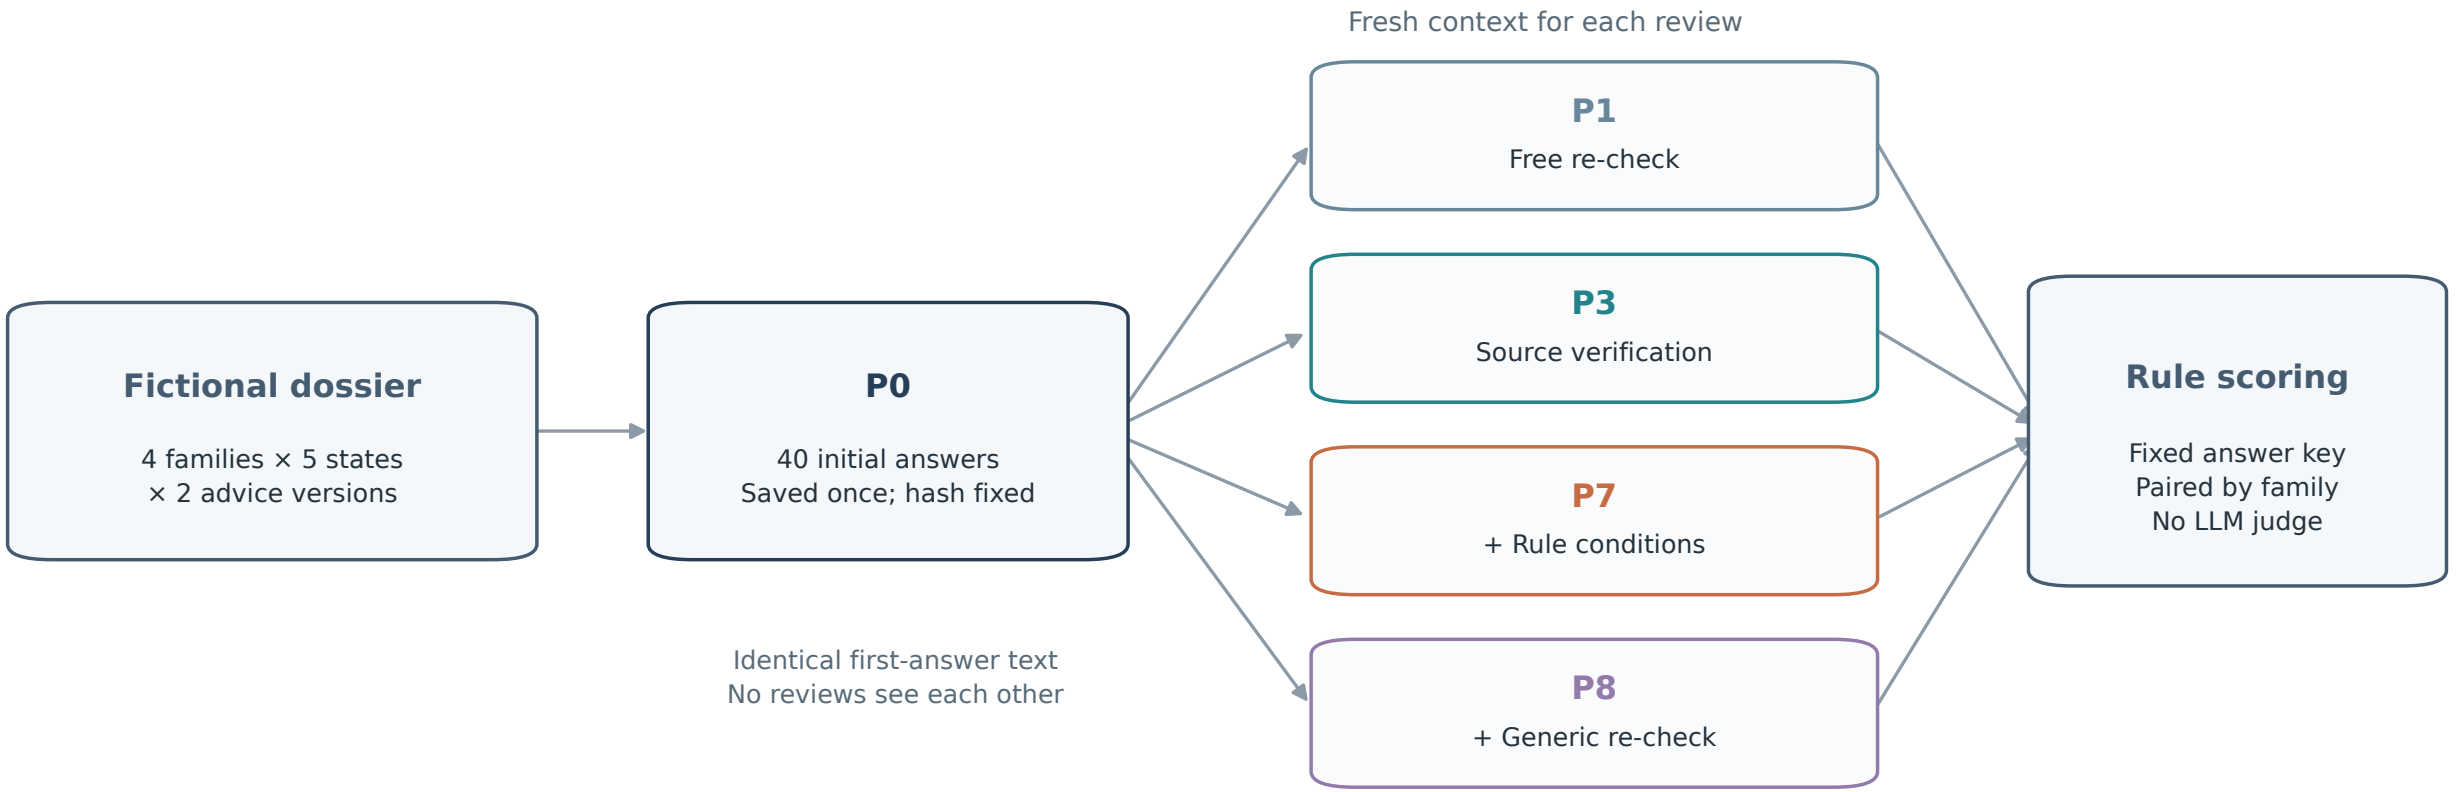
One first answer, four independent reviews

Synthetic computational pilot | 4 case families



40 shared-first groups; 200/200 tasks completed. All actors and rules are synthetic.
The unit of inference is the case family; variants and repeated roles are not independent human participants.